Payment

By bank transfer, the details are shown on the booking form. Payments are non-refundable should you need to cancel your booking.

Insurance

Toc H insurance does not cover the property of centre users and we therefore recommend that you get insurance just as you would if you were holidaying abroad. Toc H does not accept responsibility for damages or loss including accident or injury resulting from the use of Weirside.

Bookings

All Bookings are non-transferable. All groups making bookings must include adults (over the age of 18yrs). The person making the booking is responsible for the actions of the group.

Disabled access

We consider both the grounds and the building unsuitable for wheelchair access nor are there any specialised facilities.

Capacity

Bookings are entered into on the understanding that the total number in the party does not exceed the sleeping capacity of Weirside, which is 20 in two dormitories and two leaders' rooms. There are four sets of double bunks and one set of double bunks in each of the leaders' rooms.

Bedding

Each bunk has a cleanable mattress and users will need to be equipped with their own sleeping bags. Pillows in pillow protectors are also provided but it is essential in the interest of hygiene that users bring and use their own pillowcases.

Children

Due to the dormitory accommodation, Toc H considers it unsuitable for children under 5 years of age.

Dogs

We do allow guests to bring well behaved dogs to stay at Weirside, if all parties staying with them agree. However, we would kindly ask owners to clean up after their pets.

Cleaning

It is essential that on leaving Weirside it is left ready for the next users, i.e., in a clean and tidy condition. If on arrival, you find the place is not in an acceptable condition please notify Toc H Central Office who will ensure that the group that left it in an unsatisfactory condition are contacted, and Toc H may take the action that they are not allowed to use it again.
